

"Popping the cork." This is the commercial with which Alan identifies his program on Saturdays. Only 25, he is the only disc-jockey broadcasting today with a studio audience.