Dear Mr. Holly:

REFERENC

It is hereby agreed that the contract between us dated May 16, 1957, the term of which commenced as of August 30, 1957 and which was amended by letter dated August 30, 1957, be further amended in the following respects only with respect to recordings performed subsequent to the date here of:

- (1) Paragraph 5 (c) of said agreement shall be replaced by the following:

Upon the acceptance by Company of each "master" record to be recorded hereunder, Company will advance to the Artist on account of royalties above provided for, the sum of $200.00 for each such "master" record. All payments hereunder shall be to the order of Norman Petty and statements rendered to him.

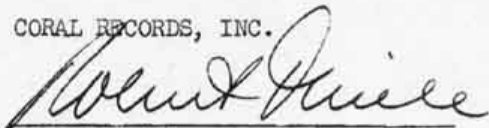

- (2) Paragraph 10 shall be deleted and be replaced by the following:

The Artist grants to Company four successive one year options to renew this contract upon all the terms and conditions herein contained which options may be exercised by Company by giving Artist notice in writing at least thirty days prior to the expiration of the then current period and such notice to Artist may be given by delivery to Artist personally or by mailing to Artist's last known address.

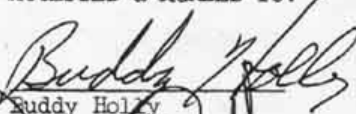

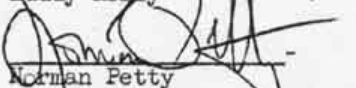

I hereby confirm and ratify the aforesaid contract dated May 16, 1957 as amended and extended together with all the terms and conditions thereof.

Very truly yours,

CORAL RECORDS, INC.
