

Mr. Freed's Rock and Roll Show has also brought praise from Police Department officials. They feel that this show has done much to take the kids off the streets and out of trouble thus curbing the juvenile delinquency problem to a great extent. Throughout the country Rock and Roll fan clubs are spreading in a manner reminiscent of the Pyramid Club craze of a few years back.

So rapid has Mr. Freed's rise been that numerous plans are in the making for the expansion of his program. At present Lou Platt, Freed's friend and manager, is busy working on a coast to coast hook-up TV show for an all-new Rhythm and Blues show which will feature original Rock and Roll Talent. Allen feels that this show will bring unlimited enjoyment into the American home.

Also planned for the near future is a terrific Easter show to be held at the Brooklyn Par-amount on April 8th where Allen is proudly looking forward to meeting and greeting his many fans.

This is, Mr. Freed, and from this columnist's viewpoint it looks like there is no limit to the heights this one-man show will reach. So hats off to you Allen Freed and keep up the good work!

Part of the crowd which jam-packed the Arena for the Moondog Coronation Ball