

Times Square Really Rocked on Friday!

POLICE STRUGGLE to keep barriers in place outside Paramount Theatre Friday as teen-agers do a bit of struggling of their own in effort to reach box office to purchase tickets for "rock 'n' roll" movie and stage show. Ushers, 25 private policemen and 125 city cops were pressed into service.

(Story on Page 3. Other photos on Pages 1 and 3)

YOUNGSTERS mill around at Paramount as police move through crowd in effort to calm them as they await door-opening.

(Mirror Photos by Fopie Randolph)