Freed Given ABC Spot In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—Alan Freed, rock 'n' roll disc jockey, indicted in Boston for allegedly inciting a riot, will spin his records over another radio station here next month.

The American Broadcasting Co. announced that Freed had signed a long-term contract to a radio program over local station WAEC. Beginning June 2, he will be disc jockey on the station Monday through Friday from 7:15 to 11 p.m. (EDT). ABC gave no further details.

Freed quit local radio station WINS recently, complaining that the station failed to back him up in the Boston controversy.
