Re: People v. John Doe
Subpoena Duces Tecum

Dear Mr. Stone:

Attached hereto for the attention of the Grand Jury are copies of:

1. Agreement dated March 26, 1959, between Mr. Alan Freed and the American Broadcasting Company, whereby the former was employed as a disc jockey for Radio Station WABC, New York City.
2. Questionnaire of the American Broadcasting Company regarding music selection practices of employees.
3. Letter of November 21, 1959, from Alan Freed to the American Broadcasting Company regarding and in partial reply to Item 2 above.
4. Letter of November 21, 1959, from Mr. Stephen Riddleberger, Vice-President, American Broadcasting Company, to Mr. Alan Freed, terminating the aforementioned employment contract of March 26, 1959.

In addition to the foregoing, we wish to advise that the following were the personnel assigned to the Alan Freed Show:

Harry Amadio, Program Director
2476 Riverside Drive
Belmore, New York

Martin Foglia, Audio Engineer
1206 Jacob Drive
Seaford, New York

We trust that the foregoing will be of assistance to you.

Very truly yours,

Charles A. DeBare
